Settle Coal Pact Issue

Lewis Announces New Contract With Owners Will Be Signed Today

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers announced today the union and the coal operators had settled their differences and would sign a contract today calling for a $2.40 a day wage increase for about 200,000 northern soft coal miners.

Lewis said the agreement would be signed at 3 p. m. CST.

The new contract, calling for a two step $2.40 a day wage boost, was scheduled to be signed Wednesday afternoon.

However, just before the signing ceremony, a disagreement developed over the interpretation of a provision relating to vacation pay.

Lewis told the UMW convention in session here that the new contract provides holiday pay during the Christmas season and on New Year's Day. He said the difficulty in interpretation concerned whether the contract covered the 1957 Christmas season and the 1958 New Year's Day.

"It was impossible," he said,

"to write into the contract for the payment of $40 in 1958 because it was possible there would be no agreement in effect because of termination of this contract on Oct. 1, 1957."

Extend Miners' Vacation

"That problem has been adjusted," he told the miners.

Lewis said it had been agreed that there be no provision for the 1958 payment, because the contract might not be in effect.

"That's a matter of future negotiations after termination of this contract and there are no commitments on either side binding the contracting parties to the assumption of the liability or the expectancy of it beyond Oct. 1, 1957," he said.

Vacation pay covering 12 days currently is $140. The vacation period, however, under the new contract, will be extended to 14 days.

The one-year package agreement provides for a two-step $2.40 a day increase, $2 in wages and 40 cents in fringe benefits. The first step of the wage increase, $1.20, is retroactive to last Monday. The second step, 80 cents, becomes effective next April 1.

Granted Extra Days Off
The miners currently earn a basic $20.50 a day. When the final increase goes into paychecks next year, they will be earning a minimum of $22.25 a day.

The new contract also calls for three extra days off at Christmas, including Dec. 24, 26 and 31. However, the current 12-day summer vacation will be cut by one day, making a total of 14 vacation days for the year. The mines are scheduled to close from June 28 to July 8 for the summer vacation next year.

In addition, miners will be paid double time for holidays. They are already paid double time for Sunday and time and a half for Saturday work.

Adlai Accuses President of Misstatement

EN ROUTE WITH STEVENSON—Adlai E. Stevenson, accusing President Eisenhower of gross misstatement of facts, carried his Democratic campaign into West Virginia today.

The presidential hopeful interrupted his eastern tour Wednesday night to deliver a 15-minute network television speech answering the President's charge that he is spreading "wicked nonsense."

Stevenson countered that Mr. Eisenhower claimed credit for the Republican party for progress made under Democratic leadership.

"I think it is too bad that the President indulged himself in such gross misstatement of the record," Stevenson declared. "He is an honorable man and could hardly have deliberately intended the misrepresentations which his speech included."

Hits Wickedness Charge
The Democratic candidate was replying to addresses Mr. Eisenhower made Monday at Cleveland and at Lexington, Ky. Stevenson repeated comments he had made earlier on the "wicked nonsense" charge.

"We all expect in politics to be accused without regard to the fairness of the charge—of talking nonsense," he said. "We don't expect to be charged with wickedness."

"I think it's too bad that any criticism of the administration, any disagreement with its policies or lack of policies, is dismissed as some form of moral delinquency or wickedness."

Repair Work Around Square

The city street department today was doing curb work on the northeast corner of the square.

Two Eldorado Men Injured In Auto Crash

Glenn Long, 43, Ola Tucker, 58, Seriously Hurt

Two Eldorado men were injured yesterday afternoon when their auto, which figured in a sideswiping on Route 13 near Equality, plummeted down a steep incline onto the road leading into Equality.

Seriously injured were Glenn Long, 43, driver of the vehicle, and Ola Tucker, 58, his passenger. They were taken to hospitals in Eldorado.

The driver of the other vehicle was Marshall Rigby, 34, Shawneetown. Rigby, his wife and two children were not hurt.

Rigby said he was driving toward Shawneetown and that the other car topped the hill from the east and that the two cars sideswiped. The Long car veered to the left and went down the steep embankment onto the highway below. The car was wrecked and the two men were rushed to the hospital by ambulance from Equality. Damage to the Rigby machine was confined to the left side of the car.

Long, taken to Ferrell hospital, suffered a possible compound arm fracture and other injuries. Tucker was taken to Pearce hospital. He suffered a fractured hip and possible internal injuries.

Near-Capacity House Sees Opening Of Elks Minstrel

The seventh annual Elks Minstrel and Revue got off to a rousing start last night at the Grand theatre and the final performance will be given tonight at 8:15.

A near-capacity house saw last night's show, termed by many "the best show yet."

The presentation got under way at 8:15 and was over at 10:15. The intermission between the revue and minstrel lasted ten minutes.

Proceeds from the show go to the Elks crippled children fund. There are both general admission and reserved seats.

An innovation last night was the interviewing of First Nighters outside the theatre by Carl Rude. The proceedings were carried over WEBQ.

Second Game Of World Series Is Postponed

BROOKLYN (AP)—Commissioner Ford C. Frick, after a conference with the umpires, announced today that the second game of the World Series between the Dodgers and Yankees had been postponed.

Frick made a detailed survey of the field and said that the playing conditions were satisfactory, but that he was concerned about the latest weather forecast.

"In view of the forecast for continued rain, we decided it best to call the game," he said. "The weather report for later today is for heavy rain."

"No World Series game ever has been stopped short of nine innings and we don't want that ever to happen."

Brooklyn Manager Walter Alston and Yankee Manager Casey Stengel both agreed with Frick's action.

Today's game will be played Friday in Brooklyn, weather permitting, and the subsequent games in Yankee Stadium will be pushed back a day.

This is the first postponement of a World Series game since Sunday, Oct. 7, 1951, when the Yankees and the Giants were the World Series opponents.

The rainout was viewed as a break for the Dodgers inasmuch as it will permit 39-year-old Sal Maglie who won Wednesday's opener, 6-3, to gain an extra day of rest. Don Newcombe, today's scheduled starter, pointed out he would like an extra day of rest also, after the heavy burden he carried during the late stages of the National League campaign.

Newcombe, 27-game winner this season, still was expected to face erratic Don Larsen, an 11-5 pitcher during the regular American League campaign when the series resumes Friday.

Solve Burglary Of Ridgway Store

The Monday night burglary of the Ridgway drug store has been solved, Gallatin county officers reported today.

After the burglary, in which $42 in cash and about $30 in merchandise was taken, Sheriff Millard Holloway and Deputy Sheriff James Fox made an investigation which resulted in the apprehension of two lads, aged 14 and 16.

However, the officers said, no charges were filed when the drug store proprietor said he did not wish to have the boys prosecuted.

Default Day Thursday, Oct. 11

Circuit court default day next week will be Thursday, Oct. 11, instead of Friday, Oct. 12, the day scheduled, Circuit Clerk Quentin Bowers reported today. Reason, he said, is because the court house will be closed Oct. 12, which is Columbus Day. Judge C. Ross Reynolds of Vienna will preside over matters Oct. 11.

Woman Owner Leaves Store to Nine Employees

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Nine employees of the huge Flossie Hill's department store found themselves the owners of the 51-year-old establishment today.

All of the nine employees had worked for Miss Hill 10 years or more.

Miss Hill said in her will that if the employees desired they could operate the store together or one of them could buy the others out.

Benson Denies Depression on Nation's Farms

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson today listed peace, security and big government as the three issues of the current election campaign.

Benson, in a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, skipped over the first two points to devote most of his attention to the role of government in agriculture.

He answered Democratic claims of a farm depression by saying net income per person on farms last year was 15 per cent above 1949 and 6 per cent over the 1950 figure. Benson added that farmers were bidding the price of farm land up to a record level.

The secretary said trouble spots marred the farm picture but both farm income and farm prices generally were higher.

"From what I've seen and what I know of our American agriculture, it certainly does not resemble the depression that our critics and the prophets of gloom and doom are determined to talk us into," he said.

Benson said farmers were not getting their fair share of the national income, but warned that the government could not guarantee farmers their fair share of income.

"The only way government can guarantee farmers income is for us to turn government over to the socialists. Then they could ration out poverty, ration the right to produce and everyone could suffer equally," he said.

Cement Not Safe

Steel Girders Collapse; 13 Hurt

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A section of steel framework for a three story parking annex to a new office building collapsed Wednesday, injuring 13 Negro workmen.

When the steel girders buckled, the workmen were hurled 15 feet to the ground from their scaffold, with steel and wet concrete falling on top of some of them.

None was reported hurt seriously.

Fred Neibel, 92, Former Resident, Dies At West Frankfort

His wife, Lucy, preceded him in death, dying last December. He was the grandfather of two well known Baptist ministers: Rev. Kenneth Neibel, pastor of the Goreville Baptist church, and Rev. Freddie Neibel, pastor of the Ozark Baptist church.

The body lies in state at the Stone funeral home in West Frankfort. Funeral plans are incomplete.

10 Workers are Killed; Six Still Buried

Rescuers Blame Removal of Forms For Disaster

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—At least six separate investigations were promised today in the collapse of a four-story building under construction which killed ten.

Six bodies are still buried in the tangle of steel and concrete.

State Police Capt. Forest White said the fire marshal's divisions of state police would investigate, and listed these other planned investigations:

A legislative committee probe headed by Rep. Wilfred G. Bassett, of Jackson County's 1st District; investigation by the insurance companies; by the contractors; by the city of Jackson Building Department, and by Consumers Power Co., the building owners.

The announcement of the investigations came on the heels of charges by Jackson Fire Chief Harold Crawford, director of rescue operations, and workmen that "green concrete" was the cause.

Halt Rescue Work

They said forms were taken off concrete floors and work continued on higher stories within a few days, before the concrete hardened. Main contractor Frank Herlihy of Chicago said this was not so, that each floor had weeks to "set" before the next went up.

Rescue work was suspended early this morning while pillars and beams which could injure rescuers were pulled or knocked down. Just before this suspension, four bloody helmets were found in a basement corner.

On reports the building was designed to withstand atomic attack, Walter C. Schmidt, construction superintendent for Consumers Power, said:

"Well, there was a small room in the basement built to withstand atomic attack. It was to house the power distribution center in case of an atom bomb attack. But that was all."

A plumber who escaped from the basement and whose father was killed in the collapse, said failure to allow the concrete to set was the cause.

The plumber, George Berry Jr., said "My father is in that building now because of it."

"That was no accident," Berry said. "It was murder."

Berry said that forms were removed in three or four days from 10½ inches of concrete poured into the floors in the partially completed office building which collapsed and trapped the workers Wednesday.

Cement Not Safe
"Cement proved that recently is green cement and it is never safe," Berry said.

Missing and presumed dead were sheet metal workers Gale Marble, Flint; Floyd Baker, Spring Arbor; Charles Amman, Jackson, and Claude Dinschus, Jackson; Plumber George Berry Sr., Jackson, and air conditioning worker William Rose, Jackson.

Fifteen Injured

The bodies brought out Wednesday after the collapse of the building were those of William Bingham, 46, St. Joseph; Roy Gardner, 27, Gerald Ely, 50, and Ray Claugherty, 52, all of Jackson.

Fifteen were injured, 13 serious or critical were hospitalized.

The southwest wing of the L-shaped, $3 million Consumers Power Co. office building going up in a north-west suburban section, collapsed after workmen had just finished pouring concrete for the fourth floor.

Some of the 125 employed on the project were carrying materials outside the structure, others had not returned from lunch hours.

About Town

And Country

By TIMOTHEUS T.

Son of New Skaggs Pharmacist Well Known Cartoonist

THERE'S A NEW PHARMACIST at the Skaggs pharmacy and although this story should be about him, I cannot keep from bringing his son into it.

Pharmacist is Neal Mace, native of Shawneetown who got his start in the drug business there, first working for E. Eberwine and later operating the store for himself, between about 1918 and 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Mace, who now are living in Harrisburg, have a son, Harry Fred, who is doing quite well. He's a cartoonist of note. In fact, he is right up there, one of the top boys in this country of ours.

Young Mace started to take up journalism at Columbia University but switched to art, and during his days in service did quite a bit of cartooning.

Since then Cartoonist Mace, who lives at Bethel, Conn., about 60 miles from New York City, has risen rapidly.

He draws cartoons for about 75 magazines including Saturday Evening Post, Look, Colliers, Ladies Home Journal, True, Argosy, This Week (which appears in the Globe-Democrat) and recently had a write-up about himself in Parade magazine. He also has written two or three books.

In a short time he will be drawing his own comic strip, which will be distributed by a syndicate.

Pharmacist Mace (sounds sorta like Pharmacist's Mate, doesn't it?), since leaving Shawneetown, has spent most of the time working in St. Louis. He was added to the local staff by Charlie Skaggs after Bob Stout, ordained into the ministry, left for Texas to enter college.

Accolade for 'Babe'

Editorial — By BRUCE BLOSSAT America loves a great competitor, and it has lost one of the finest in the death of the matchless
"Babe" Didrikson Zaharias.

Beyond question she was the greatest woman athlete of the modern era, and perhaps longer. She was not a one-sport nor even a two-sport performer. She could and did engage in virtually every kind of athletic endeavor conceivable, usually with remarkable results.

Her first great claim was in track and field events as a young Texas girl. At a national AAU meet held in Chicago in 1932, she entered eight of the 10 events scheduled.

She won five, tied for first in another and placed in a seventh.
Her personal 30 points exceeded the 22 recorded by 22 different women on the University of Illinois team.

At the Olympic Games that year in Los Angeles, she entered three events, won two and took second in the third.

Her victories set world records.
She would have won the third event, the high jump, but for a "diving" technique that ruled out her best leap. That technique is accepted today.

Until 1932 she'd never had a golf club in her hand. Invited to play a round, she stepped up to the first tee and belted the ball 250 yards down the fairway. She is credited with the longest drive ever hit by a woman—327 yards. Soon golf became her great game.

In an 18-year period up to 1953, the "Babe" won 82 golf tournaments, including the U. S. and British Amateur meets and the U. S. Open, twice.

Along the way she had troubled to learn tennis well enough to win a high school championship, played basketball expertly and did so well at softball that other girls wouldn't play with her unless she'd bat and throw left-handed. Once, in an exhibition, she struck out the great Joe DiMaggio.

Most people assumed her athletic career was over when cancer first hit her in 1953. The "Babe" had other ideas. Back in action in 1954, she won five more tournaments, including the U. S. Open for a third time. Even the game Ben Hogan had to admit that was a stirring comeback.

All through this comeback period and the disheartening days after cancer returned to plague her,

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Brownell Cancels Probe Of Northeast Airline Stock-Market Leak; St. Louis Negro To Be Named To U. S. District Court; White House Goes In
For Madison Avenue Mailing Techniques.

WASHINGTON. — The Securities and Exchange Commission was quietly and efficiently investigating the scandal surrounding the purchase of North east Airlines stock when suddenly it got a phone call from the Justice Department.

Attorney General Brownell, SEC
officials were informed, wanted the SEC investigation called off.
SEC Chairman J. Sinclair Armstrong obediently bowed. The probe was canceled.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, established by law under Roosevelt to prevent stock-market manipulation, is a quasi-judicial agency. It is supposed to act independently of the executive branch of government. It is not supposed to take orders. It was so established in order to prevent any stock-market tampering such as influenced the disastrous Wall Street crash of the Hoover administration.

Despite this Chairman Armstrong called off his probe just as his agents started to question some of the 40 or so people who bought Northeast Airlines stock after it was awarded the lush route between New York and Miami, but before that award was announced.

The stock shot up 14.5 points, and a lot of people made a killing.

Behind the killing are some very embarrassing facts, so embarassing that Attorney General Brownell doesn't want them investigated — except by his own agents. One is the fact that Georgia's Republican boss, Robert Snodgrass, bought 1,000 shares of Northeast for a quick profit of $2,500. Three aides of an important GOP senator also were in on the deal.

EMBARRASSING QUESTIONS
Also embarrassing are two reported phone calls by two Republican members of the Civil Aeronautics Board, CAB member Harman Denny has denied that he leaked any confidential information to Delta Airlines' Washington representative, Robert Griffith. Griffith has also denied this; has also denied passing any information to his Georgia friend, GOP mogul Snodgrass.

Griffith would have faced some explaining under oath, if the SEC investigation had not been called off. For investigators have turned up a telephone slip which he made a long-distance call to Georgia after the CAB made its secret decision to favor Northeast Airlines for the New York-Miami route.

Also it's become known that a party was held on the same night that CAB members voted for Northeast. Some of the CAB members were present at the party.
So also were some of the insiders who next day made a fast buck on the stock market.

These were some of the embar-this astonishing woman battled with the tenacity of a tiger. She wouldn't leave the golf course when her scores were bad. "I won't pick up," she told her husband more than once.

And she wouldn't give up on life so long as the slightest chance remained. Everyone who attended her in her last illness honored her gallantry and courage.

"Babe" Didrikson Zaharias was more than the nation's greatest woman athlete. She was a great woman, whose life embodied accomplishments and exhibited human character of the very highest order.

Her story will be told so long as the talent for the great living is respected anywhere.

passing facts which would have been revealed had not the Justice Department intervened. Official excuse for the Justice Department's intervention was that the FBI had taken over. Justice Department officials admitted that any FBI report until after November 6 was highly unlikely.

Note—The Senate investigating committee has considered investigating the Northeast Airlines scandal.
An affirmative decision, however, is doubtful. John McClellan, Arkansas Republican, seldom investigates anything which might embarrass his Republican friends.

NEGRO JUDGE

Though the President decided against Judge William Hastie of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the U. S. Supreme Court, his advisers have in mind appointment of another Negro to the federal bench.

He is Scovel Richardson of St.
Louis, now chairman of the Federal Parole Board. Richardson is due for appointment in the next few weeks as a U. S. district judge in eastern Missouri.

Though there is one Negro, Judge Hastie, on the Court of Ap-pals, no Negroes have been appointed to a federal district court.
Mr. Richardson, born in Nashville, has been a practicing attorney in southern Illinois and St.
Louis for some time, was appointed by Roosevelt as attorney in the Office of Price Administration, and has been an assistant to the chairman of the Republican National committee.

Justice Department insiders indicate that Attorney General Brownell may have a dual move in appointing Richardson to the federal bench in St. Louis: (1) Recognition of a prominent Negro who would help with the Negro vote; (2) a slap at senior Judge George Moore.

Judge Moore, who has served for two decades on the federal bench, has resented some of the Justice Department's tactics and hasn't hesitated to ride Brownell hard. Judge Moore also has his own ideas about Negro judges on the federal bench. Justice Department officials don't believe he would relish a Negro judge on his court.

Note—Two other Negro judges serve on federal courts: Judge Irving C. Mollison, on the U. S.

Customs Court; and Judge Herman E. Moore, in the Virgin Islands.

WHITE HOUSE MAILING

The White House isn't missing a trick when it comes to campaign strategy. Even direct-mail techniques are being used on White House stationery. Here is the latest.

In order to induce local organizations to campaign for the GOP, a special White House letter has been printed with the President's name at the bottom in a facsimile that looks as if he had signed it himself.

Printed on White House rag paper of excellent quality, the form letter reads:

"During the campaign of 1956
the record of the Republican party must be taken to every city in America. In this work I appreciate the help of:"

Then follows one and a half inches of blank space, so local GOP leaders can fill in the names of local GOP organizations. The form letter then continues:

"Only when all voters are fully informed of the facts and issues can we look forward with confidence to victory in November."

Signed, "Dwight Eisenhower"
The White House has ordered several thousand of these printed for use around the country.

THE WOMEN'S VOTE

GOP leaders are banking heavily on the women's vote to re-elect the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

For the first time in history more women than men are expected to go to the polls. Over 53-000,000 women are now eligible to vote compared with only 50,600,000 men, and private polls show that the women favor Ike. They like his smile and they credit him with ending the Korean war.

However, the Democrats also have an issue that may win some women's votes—high living costs.
Women do most of the shopping, and the Bureau of Labor Statistics shows that prices have shot up under the Republicans to the highest peak in history.

The zenith is the point in the heavens that is directly overhead.

Electronic 'Brain' Aids in Planning Future Road Work

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special)— Illinois state highway division engineers, planning future road construction, are being aided by an electronic device which does mathematical problems for them in rapid order. They say it enables them to do in minutes what ordinarily would take hours and even days.

They call it the "electronic brain" and it comes in ivy dressing, enclosed in a two-color steel case and is stationed in the highway divisions office here.

Theodore F. Morf, Springfield, research and planning engineer for the division, said it solves complex algebraic problems of highway design 20 to 30 times as fast as human.

The division has been using the $44,800 mathematical device since Sept. 4 at a monthly rental of $1-300. Morf says it is being used on probation so far. Should the division decide to keep it the rental payments will be applied to the purchase price.

The "brain" as Morf calls it, does such problems as calculations on the movement of earth which make up a large part of the engineering work in highway design.
Figuring out "just how much earth must be poured into a low place or taken off a high one to achieve a desired level is a tough problem," he said. The "brain" does such things much more quickly than a human expert.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

MODERN surgery has been developed to the place that thousands of people go with confidence to the operating room every day. Few of us never have had an operation. Many of us have undergone many operations.

Our bodies have been rebuilt. Repairs have given us new usefulness. We enjoy comfort such as our ancestors thought was impossible. Most of us do not realize the progress that has been made in the last generation.

When we go to the doctor with a pain, and he advises an operation we seldom hesitate to accept his advice. We have faith in him and in his skill. We look forward to relief from pain, and for longer life.

The Great Surgeon of the mind and soul is even more skilled in His operations on our sins, but we frequently hesitate to go to Him with our problems. We lack faith and hope in the results. We do not want to be dependent on One outside ourselves. We desire to deal with our own problems, and we do a very poor job much of the time.

It is strange that we are willing to be dependent on human surgeons and doctors, while we hesitate to admit failure and need for help in the spiritual side of our lives.

God has a record as long as history for His satisfactory operations on soul ailments. God has never lost a patient who put himself entirely in His hands.

Marriage Has Been 'Marvelous', Duchess Claims

NEW YORK (AP) — The woman whose love for a king once rocked an empire says that hers has been a "marvelous" marriage without a hiccup in its nearly 20 years.

"David and I have a marvelous life together," said the Baltimore-born Duchess of Windsor, the "woman I love" of the history books.

"We will celebrate our 20th anniversary next June — I honestly feel as if it were only yesterday," she said in an interview.

"We both have had to have a sense of humor," she said. "But we've never had a real spat. . . I give him most of the credit there. I think we'd laugh first anyway."

The duchess said that if her life could be re-lived, she is not sure whether that history-making decision nearly two decades ago would be the same.

"You ask me whether we would do the same again, and I can only answer, 'How does one know?'" she said. "And if one could go back, would one have any more knowledge about the right decision?"

"I did my best to keep David from leaving the throne, you know."

Library Club at HTHS Elects Officers

Goreville Man Loses Hand, Part of Arm When Auto Sideswipes Truck

GOREVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A man lost his hand and part of his arm Wednesday when his car sideswiped a truck four miles south of here on Ill. 37.

Johnson county authorities said they discovered the auto of Dowell Craig, 40, Goreville, parked at a vacant house nearby.

A passing truck driver spotted the hand and arm on the highway and notified authorities, leading to the search for the injured man.

Craig was taken to Memorial hospital at Marion where his condition was reported as serious.

Two other men in the car with Craig were not injured.

How Columbia Agricultural Limestone Helps Keep Your Farm Productive

When you apply COLUMBIA AGRICULTURAL LIMESTONE to your farm you accomplish numerous important things at one and the same time.

1. You replace the calcium and magnesium (LIME) which has been lost through cropping.
2. The acid condition of your soil, which has developed as the result of the loss of LIME, is corrected—that is, the soil is "SWEETENED."
3. The activity of favorable bacteria is stimulated; the decay of organic matter, such as manure straw, roots and stubble, is hastened; and the nitrogen forming processes are promoted.
4. Other plant foods, especially phosphorus, are kept in more available form.
5. Soil structure is improved; heavy clays and silts are made looser and easier to till.

LIME a part of your farm each year. COLUMBIA AGRICULTURAL LIMESTONE will return at least $3.00 for each $1.00 invested in your liming program.

FOR SERVICES' CHRISTMAS—If you want your serviceman overseas to get his Yuletide package by Christmas Day, mail it between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, warns the Post Office Department. Illustrated above are some of the principal regulations for such mailings. However, there are also some special rules, so check with your local post office. In addition to the package rules, the P. O. advises that Christmas cards must be enclosed in sealed envelopes and carry first-class postage.

Amateur Radio Emergency Corps to Conduct Simulated Test in Area Plan

Civil Defense Emphasized in Oct. 13 Program

On Oct. 13 the members of the Harrisburg Amateur Radio Emergency Corps, under the leadership of Joe Tate, W9BLO, emergency co-ordinator of the American Radio Relay League, will conduct a Simulated Emergency Test of the Harrisburg Community Emergency plan.

Purpose of this plan is to provide the Harrisburg area with emergency communications facilities in the event of a disaster that might damage or incapacitate normal communications facilities.

The local Amateur Radio Emergency Corps is a group of amateur radio operators who have volunteered their time and radio stations to the end that the Harrisburg area will never find itself without communication as a result of failure of telephone and telegraph lines, and is a part of a nationwide organization.

Emphasizing Civil Defense
Civil defense is again being emphasized in this year's test. Mobility and versatility of the station units taking part will be demonstrated. A number of mobile and portable short-range radio stations will be set up at strategic points around Harrisburg in order to provide local communication, and a higher-powered long-range fixed station will supply contact with distant points.

A control station located at city hall will direct all operations, with an alternate control at an undisclosed location ready to take over if necessary. The local network will be tied in with a nationwide network of amateur stations.

To Report to Area Offices
This Simulated Emergency Test will be one of hundreds of similar tests being conducted all over the nation by local units of the Amateur Radio Emergency Corps during the week-end of Oct. 13-14, and the criteria of successful planning will be the speed and reliability of communication, under simulated emergency conditions, with other parts of the city, state and nation.

As a part of the test, amateurs will originate messages addressed to headquarters of the American Radio Relay League in West Hartford, Conn. civil defense directors will originate messages to FCDA Administrator Val Peterson in Battle Creek, Mich., and Red Cross chapter chairmen will report by radio to their headquarters. The local chairman will report to the Midwestern area offices at Springfield, Call letters W9DUA.

The following are the local radio men who are planning to participate in the test along with Mr. Tate: Ernie Arms, Elmer Gladson and Harvey Clayton.

Mr. Tate, who is emergency co-ordinator for both Saline and Galatin counties, resides at 516-A West Poplar street in Harrisburg. His phone number is 111-J.

In commenting on the importance of this work, Mr. Tate pointed to the tornado that struck southern Illinois in 1925.

"Murphysboro and other cities were hit and Station W9BLO (Tate's station) was the only communication to the outside. A message was sent to Dr. Roland R. Cross at Springfield. He soon had a fully-staffed Red Cross train en route to the area to give immediate service in the stricken territories.

"This in all probability saved several lives. We don't want to be without communication when the regular services fail," Tate said.

Ernest Duncan of Harrisburg is disaster chairman of the Saline county chapter of the American Red Cross.

THE STORY: A sneak atom bomb attack has struck the city of Harrington. By obeying instructions, many survive, but the city is on fire. Civil Defense officials realize that many are doomed and order the evacuation of a large part of the city.

Philips reached out and grasped Kramer's arm. "Just a minute, Bill," he called. "Henry Thompson's boy is hurt bad. A hunk of wood drove in his side. You got a doctor here?"

"No doctor, I'm afraid," Kramer answered, shaking his head. "Endicott wouldn't believe me when I told him to get into his basement. He's dead now. Maybe we can help, though; my wife's a nurse."

Mrs. Kramer rushed through the street piled with tangled wreckage, her short, stout form moving with alacrity. "Give us a hand, Jim!" Kramer reminded Philips. "There is precious little time to waste before this whole area is swept with fire. We've got to get these children out of here!"

Kramer moved off to find help. To attempt to subdue the flames was hopeless. Water pipes in the smashed homes had broken and the vital liquid drained through uselessly. Already, Kramer knew, the flow was reduced to a trickle by the disaster-unit valve teams fighting their way into the devastated area. Trees and light and telephone poles were strewn across the street, making all vehicular traffic impossible. Several blocks away a great sheet of flame suddenly exploded upwards; "... gas mains must have blown," thought Kramer, as he and the other survivors on the block turned for a moment to watch the fiery spectacle.

The chaos increased as the gasoline tanks of many cars exploded and flamed, ignited by the fires burning in the wreckage of homes and garages. Kramer didn't even bother to go to his Warden Report Post; he could see the telephone and power lines stretched across the sidewalks and the street like slender black snakes. No call would ever get through from here, he knew.

He saw his wife, Helen Philips, and her son, Michael, bending over Donald Thompson on the lawn of the smashed Philips home. Sarah had cut away Donald's shirt and undershirt, and was taping long rolls of white gauze bandage about the boy's slender body.

Donald's eyes were wide with pain. "How you doing, son?" Kramer asked with a smile, bending over the youngster. "Okay, I guess, Mr. Kramer," he answered weakly. "My side hurts awful, though."

Kramer started to ask his wife about the youngster's condition when excited shouts and screams reached his ears. A man and woman, clothes in tatters, were stumbling over the wreckage of the street, their faces blanched with fear. "Run! They shrieked. "The whole city's on fire! The radio says to run out of here as fast as you can!"

Kramer dashed into the street and grabbed the hysterical man by the arm, spinning him half about.

His terror-stricken eyes rolled wildly as he struggled with the air raid warden. Suddenly he pulled free from Kramer's grasp, swinging wildly with a small portable radio in his hand. Kramer hastily flung up an arm to ward off the blow as the radio crashed solidly against his shoulder, flinging him to the ground. The panicky stranger dropped the radio, gasped for breath, and shouted hoarsely, "We're all going to burn!"

He stumbled away, crazed and sobbing. Kramer got to his feet, staring after the man, his shoulder aching. Startled eyes along the

Ex-Trustbuster Accused of Stock Dealings

WASHINGTON — Edward A. Foote, who recently resigned as the government's No. 2 trustbuster, Wednesday night denied dealing in the stocks of a company whose merger was under government scrutiny. He said his wife did, however.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) accused Foote of such transactions Wednesday in a press release distributed in the House press gallery.

Celler said that "virtually every week during the two-year period Mr. Foote was employed by the anti-trust division of the Justice Department, he (Foote) placed orders for substantial stock purchases or sales in numerous companies."

Several of these companies, Celler said, were involved at the time in pending investigations being made by the anti-trust division. Celler said Foote resigned Sept. 13, eight days after his subcommittee's investigators notified the Justice Department of the stock market activities.

Permits Burial Of Slain Children Beside Father

CLINTON, N. C. — Despite the objections of her family, Mrs. Christine King permitted her six children to be buried today beside their father. He killed all six of them Tuesday and then took his own life.

The husband, Rufus A. King, and the children were buried side by side in seven graves in the King family cemetery plot.

After funeral services at a funeral home here, 42 pallbearers carried the seven caskets to the graves. Pallbearers for the children were 36 boys from Hall's High School while six of King's nephews carried his casket.

Multiple slayings and suicide followed an argument in which King beat his wife and drove her from their home on a farm a few miles from here.

About Town And Country

marks contained make sense. "Functional landscaping can relieve the deadly monotony and hazardous fatigue of driving, can conserve roadsides and natural scenic beauty; can make a long drive more relaxing and pleasure than a tense chore; and, if properly planned, can reduce maintenance costs of erosion," the booklet says.

It also states: Many head-on collisions can be prevented by planting materials in the medial zone of four-lane highways.

Certain plant materials can effectively stop fast-moving cars, giving a cushioned impact.

Shrubs and trees delineate dangerous curves ahead.

Adequate use of trees and shrubs in buffer planning zones between the edge of a travelled roadway and the right-of-way line greatly reduces noise and dust nuisances with respect to adjacent areas. Plantings screen off unsightly views.

All of the points are illustrated with photographs.

26 Die in Bus Crash

LAHORE, Pakistan — Twenty-six persons were burned to death when two passenger buses collided near Multan in west Pakistan, it was reported here today.

10 Killed in 2-Car Collision

MUNCIE, Ind. — Ten persons were killed, including a family of eight with four small children, Wednesday night in a head-on, two-car collision seven miles west of here.

Sheriff's police said Fred Beal, 32, his wife, Lillian, 63, their daughters, Claudia, 4, Vickie Lynn, 5, Christina, 6, and Inez, 8, Beal's mother, Mrs. Marie Clark, 60, his sister Loretta Beal, and a friend, Jesse Price, 37, died in the accident.

The 10th victim, who drove the other car was identified as Thomas Bryan Burns, 35, Keystone, Ind. All those riding in Beal's car were from Muncie, police said. Policeman John Nicewander said skid marks at the point of impact indicated the car driven by Beal apparently swerved across the westbound lane over the center line and crashed into Burns' eastbound car.

All the victims except one were killed instantly, Nicewander said. Lillian Beal died shortly afterward on the operating table of the Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie.

Seek to Determine If Girl Buried Alive by Sex Fiend

HOBART, Ind. — Experts from the state crime laboratory worked with the coroner today in an effort to determine whether 16-year-old Lana Brock was buried alive by a sex maniac.

The girl's bruised and nearly nude body was found buried in a sandbank in New Chicago, Ind., Tuesday. She had been missing from her home in New Chicago for a week.

Deputy Coroner Warren Pike said a superficial examination had not determined the cause of death, but he promised full results of an autopsy today.

Meansville, 30 law enforcement officers sought the slayer but said no definite leads had turned up. They believed a sex maniac attacked the girl, and may have buried her alive by kicking sand down upon her from the sandbank in which she was found.

She was clad only in a brassiere and shoes. A white blouse, blue jeans and other clothing lay nearby.

Graveside Services Held For James Allen

Graveside services were held Wednesday afternoon at Lebanon cemetery for James Sherman Allen, 46, whose skeletal remains were found recently in a dry creek bed 12 miles southwest of Harrisburg. The funeral was attended by relatives and close friends.

The remains arrived Wednesday morning from Springfield where they had been taken to the Illinois State Museum for identification.

Allen is survived by one brother, Ted Allen, Galatia, and three sisters, Miss Leoti Allen, with whom he resided before leaving Galatia, Mrs. Geneva Reason, Alton, Mrs. Hattie Bell, Almont, Calif.

The Courtney funeral home of Galatia was in charge of the service.

Israeli Train Machine Gunned

JERUSALEM, (Israeli Sector) — Government officials said today an Israeli passenger train was riddled with machine gun and rifle fire near the Jordan border Wednesday night.

The Israeli engineer was wounded in the leg and stomach, but he took the train another 20 miles to Lydda Junction before stopping. None of the passengers was injured.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, chief of the U. N. armistice commission here, expressed regret over Israel's decision to pull out of the Israeli-Jordan mixed armistice commission. He asked Israel to reconsider the decision announced Wednesday.

Stewardship Campaign At First Baptist Church

The First Baptist church of Harrisburg has begun one of the most extensive and intensive stewardship campaigns in its history. Every member of the church and Sunday school will be challenged to recognize that they are only stewards of what they possess and to return the tithe plus an offering.

All phases of stewardship are being promoted with special emphasis upon the financial responsibilities to the church.

Former Bank President Dies in Auto Accident

Spouse's Lie Test Doesn't Satisfy Wife

CHICAGO (UP) — A wife has charged her spouse failed to answer enough questions about enough women in a lie test designed to prove his fidelity.

Harold Mandelbaum offered to submit to lie detector tests Wednesday after his wife, Clara, sued him for a divorce on the ground of adultery.

But Mandelbaum insisted thru his attorney, Fred Ginsberg, that he would only answer questions about a girl called Phyllis. Charles Cooley, Mrs. Mandelbaum's lawyer, accused him of welching on a court agreement to tell the truth about alleged relations with several women.

Cooley said he plans to seek a contempt action against Mandelbaum for failing to keep his promise.

The test was approved by Judge Walter Butler, who hoped it might lead to a reconciliation.

Results of the test and a transcript of the questions and answers asked by the operator of a private lie detector firm were withheld on the ground that they were Mandelbaum's property, but may be revealed by the judge Oct. 15 as part of the divorce suit.

Mrs. Mandelbaum and her lawyer stalked indignantly from the lie detector offices after Ginsberg made the stipulation that the questions only center around "Phyllis."

A lie test generally involves a set of routine questions, such as "Did you wash your face this morning?" These questions are interspersed with key questions, like "Did you ever kiss...?"

The reactions of the subject to the two sets of questions are compared by the operator to decide whether he is lying or not.

Mrs. Mandelbaum's attorney said a reconciliation seemed unlikely.

Ex-Polio Poster Boy Drowned By Playmate

COLTON, Calif. (UP) — Juvenile authorities today were handed the job of deciding the fate of an 11-year-old boy who confessed drowning a former polio poster boy in the yellowish waters of a hobo jungle pool.

Lester Stewart Wednesday told police he pushed crippled George Bryant, 8, into the pool in the Santa Ana River wash near railroad yards here and held his head under water until he drowned.

The freckle-faced schoolboy told officers he and George played hockey from school Tuesday to go swimming. He said George "called my mother a bad name" and the pair began scuffling at the water's edge.

George was a Napa County March of Dimes poster boy in 1949 while his family lived in St. Helena, Calif. The victim's divorced mother, Mrs. Irene Bryant, said Lester and her son were the "best of friends" and both attended Washington Elementary School.

Senate Investigators Question Mrs. Hodge About Husband's Deals

CHICAGO — Senate investigators called Mrs. Orville E. Hodge, wife of the imprisoned former state auditor, to tell them today what she knew about her husband's alleged dealings with hoodlums and racketeers.

They also made arrangements to study the files of a Cook county grand jury investigation into bankers' contributions to political funds. Robert Wallace, staff director for the State Banking and Currency Committee, said Mrs. Hodge agreed to talk to committee investigators in a closed conference this afternoon.

State's Atty. John Gutknecht promised to open to Wallace Friday afternoon the files of the grand jury inquiry into bankers' gifts to "welfare" or political funds.

Wallace said Mrs. Hodge would be questioned about her published statements that Hodge was acting as scapegoat for "others" who were still free.

Hodge was convicted of tapping the state treasury for one million dollars in a phony check scheme. He is serving a 12 to 15 year prison term.

Hodge and two imprisoned associates were expected to appear at Senate hearings which open Monday. The American Broadcasting Co. announced that it had received permission to televise the hearings.

IHSA Asks Benton Action Against Football Player

CHICAGO — The Illinois High School Assn. has asked Benton High School officials to take "appropriate" action against a football player who allegedly struck a Marion player after a hotly contested game at Marion last Friday.

Albert Willis, executive secretary of the IHSA, said he had informed Benton school authorities that the youth's action was "contrary to things we think are good in high school sports."

Willis said the IHSA "has not declared the boy ineligible" but "asked for appropriate action." "I'm pretty sure Benton High School will hold him ineligible" until the matter is straightened out through agreement between the schools, Willis said.

Willis said he did not know the name of the Benton boy.

He said he acted after receiving a letter from the Marion school principal, a telephone report from Benton school authorities and a written report from game officials.

New Contract for Carbondale Clerks

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Carbondale retail clerks and merchants agreed on a new two-year contract today, ending several weeks of negotiations.

The clerks will receive pay increases of 11 cents an hour, 6 cents this year and 5 cents in 1957. They also agreed to work for straight time during night openings once a week, spokesmen said.

locally from Committee Chairman Sen. William Fulbright (D-Ark).

However, there was some doubt whether Hodge would allow himself to appear on television. His former office manager, Edward Epping, and Edward Hintz, former president of a Chicago bank, were convicted of conspiracy in the mammoth swindle. They also were expected to appear at the hearings.

State authorities arranged to transfer Hodge and Epping from Menard State Penitentiary at Chester, Ill., to Stateville Penitentiary near Joliet so they will be near Chicago for the hearings. It will mark the first time they have been under the same prison roof with Hintz, who already is at Joliet.

Duck Flies Into Building in Fog

DU QUOIN, Ill. — A south-bound duck in fogbound Du Quoin early today flew into the side of a lumber company and was knocked unconscious. After 10 minutes, it wobbled to its feet and continued its flight.

Lumber company Manager Ray Provart wonders if a new electrical decoy he has on the desk might have been the attraction... or whether the new white concrete building had the appearance of a lake.

Sal Maglie Celebrates First World Series Victory Of His Brilliant Career

BROOKLYN, N. Y. — The tongue proved as mighty as the razor for Sal Maglie, the youngest 39-year-old pitcher baseball has ever seen, and that's why today he can celebrate the first World Series triumph of his brilliant career.

Swarthy, scowling Sal, whom the Dodgers rescued from the scrap heap early this year, was just about ready for the showers in the fifth inning of Wednesday's opening game of the series.

He'd pitched out of three earlier jams, but this time he really was in the soup with two men on base and the menacing Yogi Berra at bat. Out to the mound strode Dodger Manager Walter Alston, and the Brook pilot said later, "I really had it in mind that time to yank him."

It would have meant the dash of Sal's great dream of a World Series victory, for even had a relief pitcher put out the fire Sal would not have been eligible for the win because he did not hurl five full innings.

Biggest Kick for Maglie
If he lives to be 100, Alston never will put reliance in a gamer guy, for Maglie nailed Berra and Bill Skowron to close out the inning. After that he was pretty much in command all the way in posting the triumph he said was "the biggest kick I ever got out of baseball."

Alston said Sal had him worried time after time—"he'd get in a little trouble, then he'd strike someone out; then he'd be in trouble again, and then he'd fan someone else."

The greatest tribute to Sal's 10-strikeout masterpiece came from the pros themselves, who know what it must mean to defy Yankee lightning on a day when you don't have all your stuff and your 39-year-old bones are weary.

Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, who had been warned by scouts that Maglie would be the best old pitcher he ever saw, admitted, "He surprised me. He pitched a darn good game, starting bad and getting better."

And Yankee shortstop Gil McDougald, who hit .311 in the regular season but failed three times against Maglie, admitted, "There isn't anyone quite like him in our league."

The original 8-5 odds on the Yankees simply didn't look right Wednesday when the teams squared off in the Brooklyn band-box.

Yanks Grab Lead
Mickey Mantle unfurled a 400-footer over the right field fence in the first inning to give the Yankees a 2-0 lead but the Dodgers tied it in the bottom of the second and took a 3-2 lead, ending Ford's stay on the mound, in the third.

Jackie Robinson's homer cut the Yankee lead to 2-1 to open the second inning and Gil Hodges' single and Carl Furillo's double tied the score. One-out singles by PeeWee Reese and Duke Snider set up the Brooklyn threat in the third. Ford got Robinson on a fly to Mantle but there was one right-handed batter too many and Hodges followed with his three-run homer into the lower left field stands.

Martin's homer cut the margin to 5-3 in the top of the fourth but the Dodgers added their sixth run in the bottom of the frame on Roy Campanella's double and a single by Amoros.

Thereafter, it was up to Maglie, and the 39-year old no-hit comeback "kid" of 1956 made it as he's made so many other victories in the past—by fighting his way out of constant jams, refusing to make the bad pitch in the clutch and then closing with a sudden burst of hidden energy.

It was Maglie's first World Series victory and the only achievement really left to this one-time vagabond of the mound, a Mexican-jumper in 1946, a hated man in Brooklyn from 1950-54 and today the living proof that a man's only as young as he thinks he is.

Sal Maglie

Expect Tighe To Be Named Tigers' Manager

BROOKLYN (UP) — From out of the smoke-filled back rooms of the World Series headquarters came authoritative word today that Jack Tighe will be named Detroit's new manager shortly and Kerby Farrell now has the "inside track" at Cleveland.

Here's the Detroit situation: The economy-minded Tigers have offered Tighe, who has served as a coach with them the past two years, a salary of $18,000 to manage the club next season. Tighe received an estimated $11,500 this year and feels he should be worth $22,500 to the Tigers if they want him to manage.

Originally, the new owners of the Tigers considered Birdie Tebbets of Cincinnati and Al Lopez, who quit as Cleveland pilot last Saturday, as their top candidates. The Redlegs informed the Tigers Tebbets wasn't available. Then the Detroit brass learned that Lopez had received $40,000 from the Indians this year and that figure cooled their interest considerably. So with the Tigers offering $18,000 and Tighe asking $22,500, it all boils down to a matter of $4,500 that now stands between the two parties.

Tighe, 43, has a 13-year background as a manager in the minors and a reputation for being a good handler of pitchers.

Farrell, also 43 years old, undoubtedly will be named the "minor league manager of the year" for 1956. He led Indianapolis to the American Association pennant this season, then beat Rochester of the International League four games in a row in the recently concluded "Little World Series."

Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg has invited Farrell to New York to confer with him, it was learned, and there is every indication he will be offered the post which Lopez resigned.

Dodgers' President Falls Down Stairs

BROOKLYN (UP) — The battling Dodgers have a battling president in Walter O'Malley.

The Dodgers' prey fell down a flight of stairs at the team's World Series headquarters Wednesday night. He was taken to a Brooklyn hospital, where it was announced he suffered a wrenched back.

However, O'Malley returned to the headquarters an hour later and said he would be at Ebbets Field today for the second game of the series.

Girls' Athletic Ass'n Playday at Ridgway High School Oct. 13

Ridgway high school will be host for the first Girls' Athletic Association Playday on Saturday, Oct. 13.

Lois Patton, president of the Harrisburg unit, announced that ten members will be selected to represent Harrisburg in the meet. Mrs. Ben Chamness will accompany the girls to Ridgway.

In the past, the playdays have had good attendance. Schools from all over southern Illinois will be represented.

Bonnell Gym Is Redecorated

Bonnell Gym has been completely redecorated for the first time in the history of the Harrisburg high school.

Brown and green paints have replaced the grey of former years, the bleachers have a new coat of varnish and a sound proof ceiling lessens the noise.

Bull Dogs Play Friday Night at Mt. Vernon in Shrine Benefit Tilt

Permanent Possession of Trophy at Stake

Permanent possession of the Shrine trophy is at stake when the Harrisburg Bull Dogs and Mt. Vernon Rams meet in a South Seven conference football game at Mt. Vernon Friday night.

The Shrine games were set up on a five-year basis, with the team winning the most times getting the trophy for keeps at the end of the period.

Harrisburg, which won the game last year and the year before, now holds temporary possession of the trophy. Mt. Vernon won it in 1952 and 1953, the only times Mt. Vernon has beaten Harrisburg the past seven years.

Strangely, while Harrisburg has won five out of seven in varsity play, the locals have been able to win but one freshman-sophomore game from Mt. Vernon during the same period.

Locals Seek First Win

Harrisburg, which has bowed 21-7 to Murphysboro, 20-0 to Marion and 29-14 to Eldorado, will be seeking its first win of the season. Mt. Vernon has a mark of one win, one loss and one tie, beating Herrin 37-32, losing to Chester 13-8, and tying West Frankfort last week, 7 to 7.

Harrisburg Coach Lawrence Caluffetti said that three of his backfield men were ailing this week. Fullback John Zeigler, who sat out the entire second half of the game against Eldorado last week, still is not in good condition. Mickey Stone also sat out the last half with an ankle injury until the closing minutes when he entered the game for forward passing duties and his ankle continues to bother him. He is the team's best passer.

Another halfback, Trevor Whiteside, continues to have ailments that keep him from performing up to par.

Probable Starters

If these boys are unable to start, Caluffetti probably will have a backfield of Bob Clark, Jim Cummins, Don Biggs and Eddie Price.

Olson Quits, Will Not Go Through With Bout Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (UP) — Carl (Bobo) Olson, washed up as a top-notch battler at 28, went into retirement today — convinced that he couldn't come back from the effects of knockouts at the hands of Archie Moore and Sugar Ray Robinson.

The balding Honolulu and San Francisco battler, king of the world's middleweights from Oct. 21, 1953, to Dec. 9, 1955 decided Wednesday that he was not a headliner any more.

Through his manager and friend, Sid Flaherty, Olson had to announce that he couldn't go through with a planned fight here tonight against Sammy Walker, New England middleweight champion.

During his 10-year career in the ring, Olson earned an estimated $750,000 in purses.

He was in 74 professional fights, won 65 and lost nine.

Attendance at Parks Shows State Is Popular as Vacation Land

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Illinois' growing popularity as a vacation land seems to be an indisputable fact. Figures of attendance thru Sept. 1 at state parks show an increase of 561,475 visitors over the same period last year.

In May of this year, Carl G. Hodges, superintendent of the Division of Department Reports, who is responsible for the state's travel promotion activities, predicted Illinois would attract more visitors this year than ever before.

He said the growing popularity of the state began with a "tell and sell Illinois" program suggested by Governor William G. Stratton.

Results of the Stratton-sponsored program, now in its third year, bear out Hodges' prediction that well over 10 million persons will visit Illinois in 1956.

Hodges announced that an increased newspaper advertising program this year, along with a continuation of "Land of Lincoln" theme activities such as film distribution and literature mailing, had had an enormous effect on the increase of Illinois popularity.

Egyptian Health Dep't News

VISION SCREENING PROGRAM AT HTHS

For the past week the public health nurses in the Saline county office of the Egyptian Health Department have been very busy on a vision screening program at the Harrisburg Township high school.

The total enrollment in this school is 825 students and 785 of these students were seen by the nurses but 171 of them were not tested as they were already wearing glasses and the public health nurses do not test children's eyes if they are already wearing glasses, so they actually tested only 614. Of this number 85 failed the first vision screening test. Forty of the students were either absent or did not report to have their eyes checked.

On October 22 the nurses will return to the high school to re-test the eyes of the 85 who failed the first vision screening test. After a student fails the first test and then fails on the re-test, the boy or girl is referred to the doctor of their choice for any further care and treatment.

On October 22 if a boy or girl has failed the first test and fails on the re-test a letter will be given to them advising the parents and the doctor to whom they report of the public health nurse's findings. This is a four-way program—the student, the school, the parent, and the doctor to whom the boy or girl will report. The program is only successful to the extent that everyone does his job.

The public health nurses sincerely hope that all eye difficulties and limitations for Harrisburg high school students will be corrected as a result of their findings in this vision screening program.

May Mean Boom Year

In 1955, Illinois ranked fifth in popularity, with 7,370,251 visitors, topped only by New York, Florida, California and Michigan. This year's figures through Sept. 1, show 7,931,726 persons have visited here, which could give Illinois a strong fourth position in 1956.

There is no way to accurately estimate what effect this tremendous program has had on business in the state. However, replies to a questionnaire sent to all persons who requested vacation material from the state, have shown evidence that may mean a real boom year for hotels, motels, restaurants, railroads, bus lines and retailers catering to the traveling public.

Twenty-two per cent of those requesting vacation material actually came to Illinois. Of this number, 90 per cent came by car, five per cent by train, two per cent by bus and the remainder by miscellaneous means. For the first time, the survey showed, some vacationers came by plane, train or bus and then hired rental cars at their destination. Once they arrived, 45 per cent stayed in motels, 24 per cent with friends and 18 per cent in hotels, while the remainder camped out or used trailer parks.

Hodges also stated that many of the newly organized "Land of Lincoln" tours by railroads and bus lines were attracting budget minded vacationers to Illinois.
